

'Imagine!'

with June Watts

A long Easter weekend of deep dancing.

Michaelgarth near Monmouth
Friday 14th - Monday 17th April 2017

What do I truly want? How can I create it?
Through the power of our imagination and the energy created through dances of release, focus, fun and contemplation we dance our dreams into reality, into manifestation.

"When I dance I know who I am! I feel Centred and Connected with All things."

PLACE: -

Easter is a magical time at Michaelgarth, the self-catering retreat house of Ty Mawr Convent. It is set in beautiful country, two miles from the village of Trellech, (Tri-lech - three stones). These standing stones are aligned with the Winter Solstice sunset.

Leaving Monmouth on A40 towards Abergavenny turn left on to B4293 towards Chepstow. Keep on B4293 for 3 miles after the old Toll House. Turn left to Penalt and Whitebrook. and the left fork to Penalt. You will pass Ty Mawr convent on your right. Drive past this entrance to the next gates on the right which lead into Michaelgarth.

ACCOMODATION: -

Fully residential. Accomodation in single and twin-bedded rooms.

FOOD: -

Delicious home-cooked organic food.

Please indicate any special dietary needs when booking.

TIME: -

The weekend begins with supper at 6 pm on Friday 14th April, and the circle forms at 7.30pm. You are welcome any time after 4.00pm.

It ends after lunch on Monday 17th April.
